*Once a weary senior student,
In a school of long ago,
Dozed off as the teacher lectured,
Slept a hundred years or so.*

*Thoughtful workmen built around him;
Progress called for greater space,
Till a mammoth institution
Took the ancient structure's place.*

*Then one day an air-raid siren
Shrieked through every wall and beam,
Reached the long-forgotten sleeper,
Woke him from his pleasant dream.*

*Can you picture his reception
At the Sacramento High?
Will he stare in consternation
As he wonders, "Where am I?"*

*Find the answers in these pages;
Contrast here the old and the new.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

In the years to come this Review will relate the story of your student life at Sacramento Senior High School. The contributions of many students as portrayed here, the many social activities, athletics, and other organizations have enriched your high school life. I hope that each of you has benefited to the fullest extent and that in the years to come this Annual will bring back many pleasant memories. To all of you, and especially to the graduates, I wish an abundance of all good things in the years to come.

can teach even "Rip" new tricks

Well, look at all the new faculty members. And while we're on the subject of the faculty, I'd sorta like to devote a few words to them. They've got it coming for all the work I've watched them do in the last year. You know—it's funny, but we never stop to realize how much our teachers do for us. They stay after school to help us catch up on back school work; they devote a great part of their time supervising and helping out with student body activities. I think they really deserve a lot of thanks—don't you? So here's to the faculty, a great group of fine people.

Top to bottom, first row: Mr. Bev. F. Peairs, Mr. George Relles, Mr. William Sweezy. Second row: Miss Marion Phillips, Mr. Lynn Roberts, Mr. Gene Tarr. They're outstanding!

Who is it?—clue: a Pepperette, Booster, Review Editor—why Pat Coley, our Girls' Vice, of course!

What a Variety Show! Naturally Jim Casali was co-chairman, besides being active in other activities.

Besides being a scholar, Diane Trethowan entertained us with her lovely voice in the Variety Show.

Joy Wilbrand was a smiling Pepperette and cabinet member but joyful when she received a scholarship.

Faye Leong was a fine Pepperette and a hard working council member.

Another basket! It's none other than our student body president, Brook Lowe.

Leta Lee made a sweet Pepperette, Booster, and senator of our class.

Nancy Leam served as a smiling cabinet member, past president of our class, and a well-remembered commencement speaker.

Joan Larson starred as energetic and good sport around our gym and was winner of the girls' sports award.

Lillian Yee was elected our class president and snappy R. O. T. C. officer.

Fernando Dulay was a never-tiring Pepper, Booster, R. O. T. C. officer, and commencement speaker.

It's a bird—no, a plane—no, it's Harry Buckman in track and football.

Activities

Once again our mighty Dragon team defeated the C. K. McClatchy Lions at the annual Turkey Day Game. Although the score was small, 7-0, the victory was great.

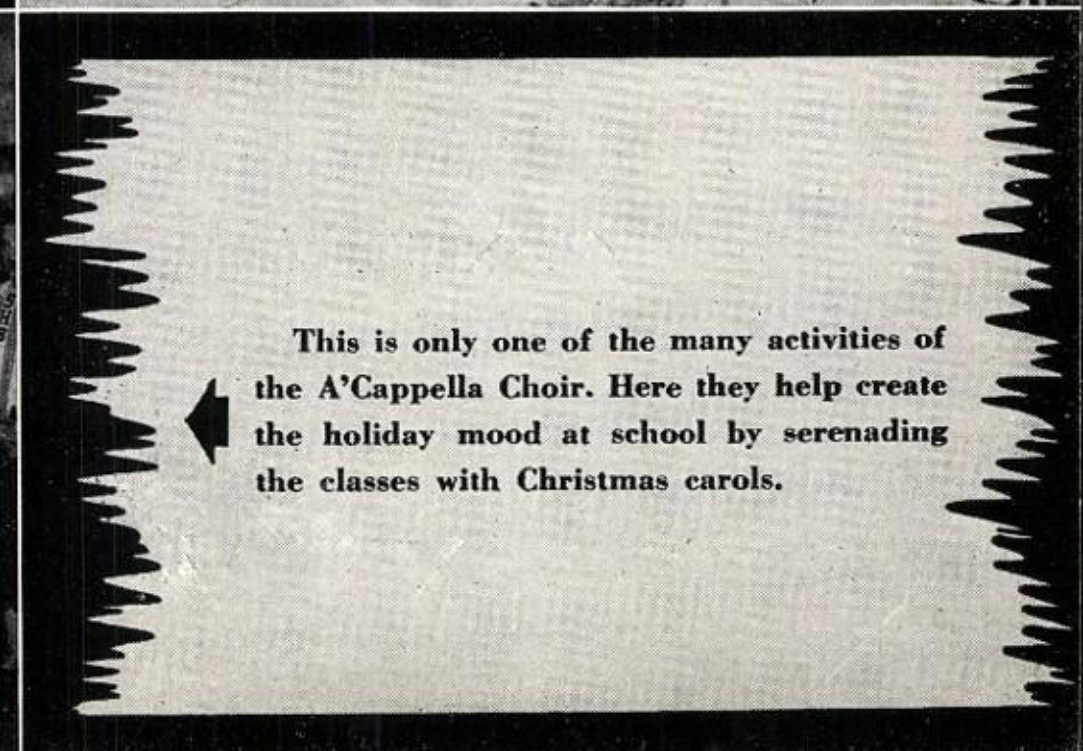

A bathing beauty contest was held on April 1st to determine the best figure of the year — but I'm no fool; these aren't gals.

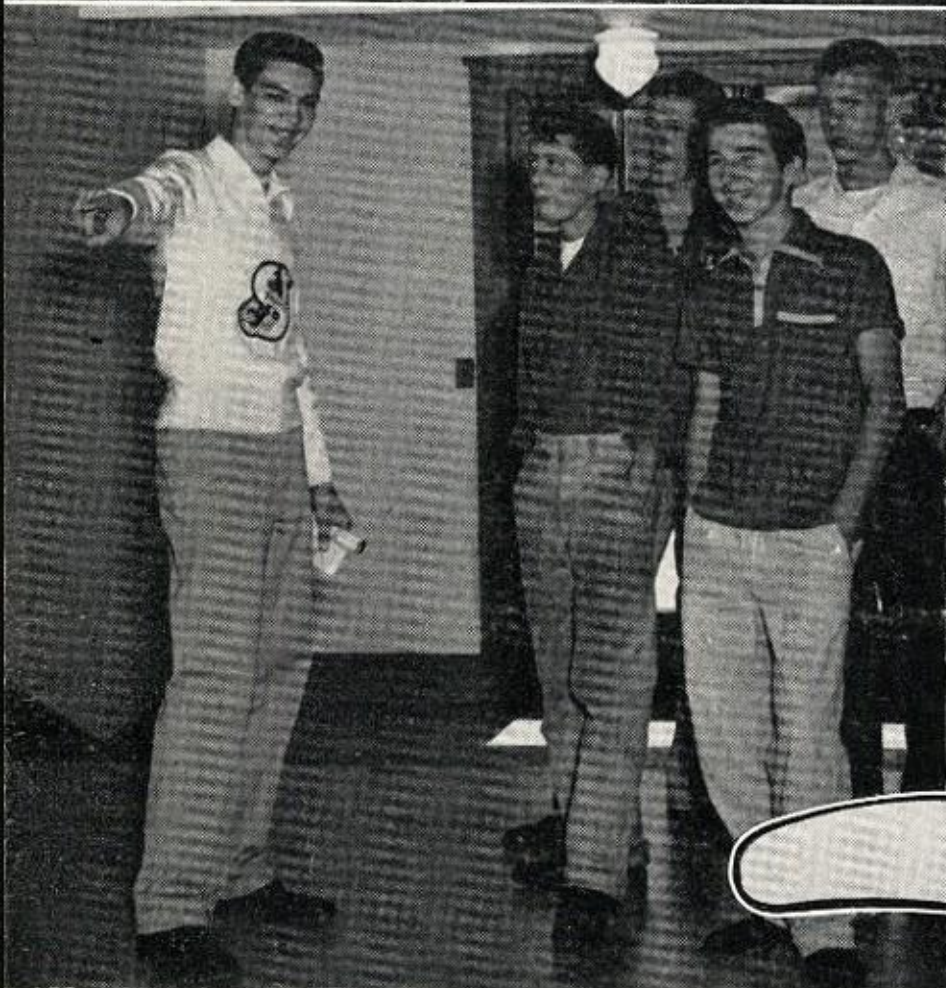

K—areful not to throw your banana peelings under someone's toe.
T—ry to trim your waist by picking up the waste.
D—on't play applecore Baltimore, or you'll lose your friend.
K—eep The Dragon Kleen; that means you!

This is only one of the many activities of the A'Cappella Choir. Here they help create the holiday mood at school by serenading the classes with Christmas carols.

Fall Sophomore

One of the highlights of the year to the Peppers and the Pepperettes is the semi-annual arrival of a new sophomore class. In order to help the newcomers get acquainted, there are a number of activities scheduled, such as the Sophomore Tea and the Sophomore Rush. The Peppers and Pepperettes take charge of these affairs and help the school give a cordial welcome to the new sophomores.

Activities

"Fiesta Time," the Sophomore Rush, was won by the low sophomores. Barry Serrard, climbing the greased pole, did his best to get to the top. Loads of fun and laughs were had by all. Pat Coley and Harold Strauch, girls' and boys' vice presidents respectfully, deserve the credit and the thanks of everyone concerned. Everyone went home tired, but this good time will always be remembered.

The Student Show

The faculty chairman, Mrs. Jane Calhoun, and her assistant, Mr. Sherman Posch, did a wonderful job. (Left) Carol Bennetts and Aphra Poelman do some of the acting of the show. (Center) "Shoo Fly Pie" and the "Comic Ballet" furnish some of the dancing. (Below) Steph and Jim get a well deserved hand.

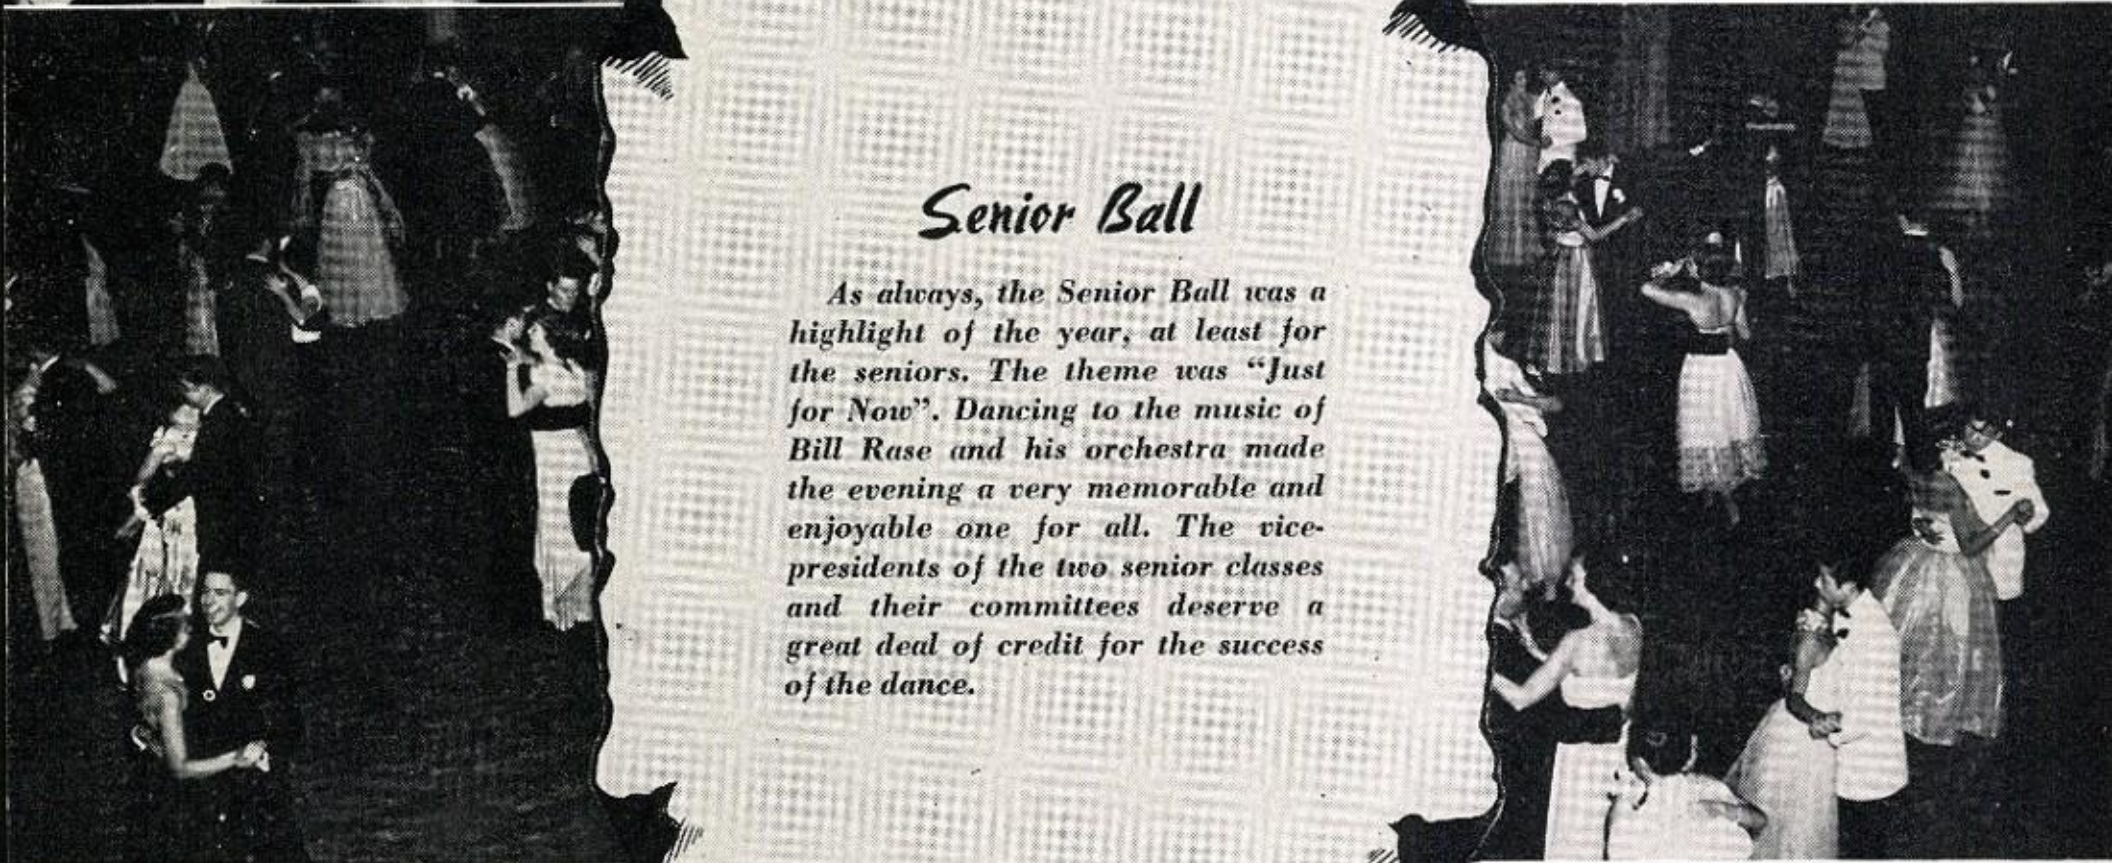

What? No minuet?

Senior Ball

As always, the Senior Ball was a highlight of the year, at least for the seniors. The theme was "Just for Now". Dancing to the music of Bill Rase and his orchestra made the evening a very memorable and enjoyable one for all. The vice-presidents of the two senior classes and their committees deserve a great deal of credit for the success of the dance.

Such goin's on!

Other Dances

Among the activities of a school there are, of course, the dances. "Blue Moon", the theme of the Junior Prom, was given in the fall with the music provided by Bill Rase and his orchestra. At the "Pennies for Peace" dance, we had a fine time dancing to the music of Ken Harvey and his orchestra. Besides the good time all enjoyed, the goal for raising money was reached. Ken Harvey's orchestra also played for the sophomore dance, "What's Up, Doc?" June Williams and Gee Fong, co-chairmen for the dance, deserve a good deal of credit for its success.

RALLIES

What really makes a rally? Why zippy yells, classy skits, and fine sportsmen, of course! And it's evident to see that Sac'to High has all of these.

FALL ACTIVITIES

F—finest yell leaders.

A—all out for the polio drive

We really fell for these activities.

Assemblies were fun . . .

Although few in number, the assemblies that we had were worthwhile. The Girls' State delegate, Betty Lee, and the Boys' State representative, Harold Strauch, told of their experiences from the state-wide convention to the students. Eager to see who had been chosen the most outstanding, everyone looked forward to the awards and installation assemblies.

The Christmas assembly that told the story of the birth of Christ was complete with sacred and traditional music. The birthdays of Lincoln and Washington were remembered by the speech, "Washington, Man or Monument," and the play, "Lincoln's Coat."

STUDENT GOVERNMENT CLASS AT WORK

The student government class meets each day under the able direction of Mrs. Alice Schmidt, the Student Body Advisor. This class is made up of the members of the cabinet, and it is they who plan most of the functions for the student body.

SPRING SOPHOMORE ACTIVITIES

From the sophomores' first day at Sacramento High they were welcomed by a whirlwind of sophomore activities. "Hey Day" was the theme of the tea to get all the newcomers acquainted. Soon following came "Play Day," the rush. Tug-a-wars, races, and the climbing of the greased pole were some of the rush's activities. The low sophomore president accepted the trophy for his class with pride and joy.

Lookit the young uns.

In the spring — a student's fancy

SPRING ACTIVITIES

Among the peppy spring activities this last semester were the track meets, at which our ambitious yell leaders did their stuff in helping us cheer our team on to victory. Everyone enjoyed the Red Cross dance; and even though it was the first given for this noble cause, it was a huge success. All these spring functions and many more helped make our year a well rounded and happy one filled with activities.

turns to thoughts of "play".

SENIOR PLAY

This year's senior play, "My Sister Eileen," was one of the funniest and most successful plays ever to be held at Sacramento Senior High School. The leads were played by Dee Smith, Jerry Crump, and Shirley Edsall. Other parts were taken by Ben Terry, Kay Dittmar, Armen Tashdian, Gary Strain, Barbara Rohwer, Jack Thorne, Jack Campbell, and Barbara Henker.

Gals parade at functions "Dancey"

GIRLS' STAGETTE

"Hawaiian Luau," which means big feast, was the title of this year's Girls' Stagette. The Pepperettes and Girls' Athletic Association, under the direction of Mina Raines-Lambe and Claudia Mapes, really showed everyone a good time. Mary Taylor was chosen as having the most original costume. Kay Dittmar and Carol Roberts received a box of candy as the prize for the most amusing costumes.

Proudly we present

The new Community Pavilion was completed this semester after many months of watching it grow. Ever since the ground-breaking stage we have been eager to see and use the finished product.

Our first investigation proved the pavilion's facilities were complete—even to the snack bar for hungry rooters. We're proud of this impressive addition to our campus and are looking forward to more good times in it.

Wow!!

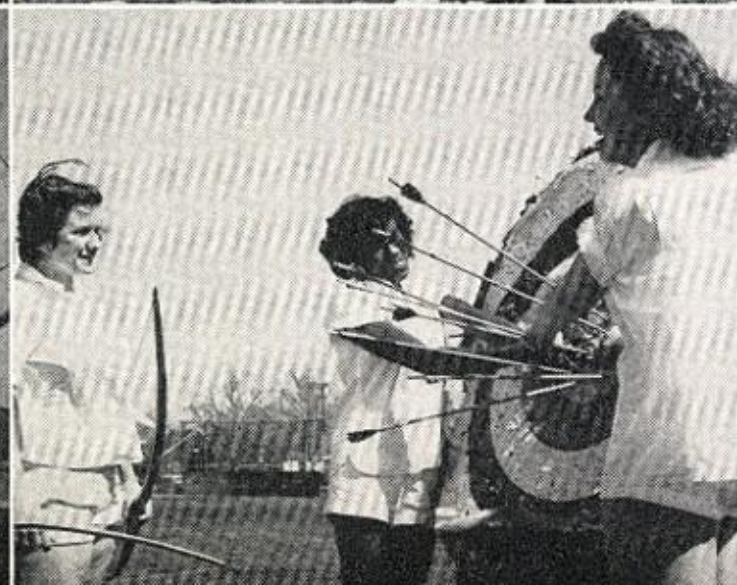

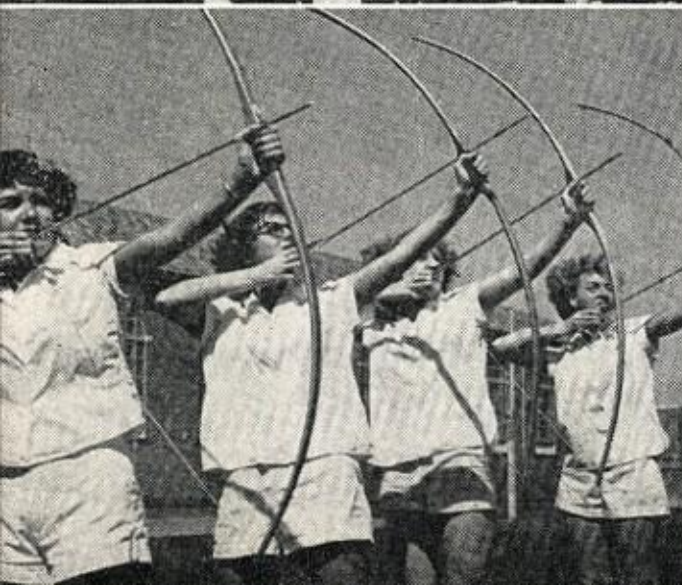

An important role in the football games and parades is that played by these snappy majorettes. Leona Sizemore is head majorette, and her assistants are Dana Williams, Pat Crockett, Alice Trent, and Edith Krouse.

Included in the fall sport activities for girls are basketball and field hockey. Both sports are exciting and seem to be very popular with the girls.

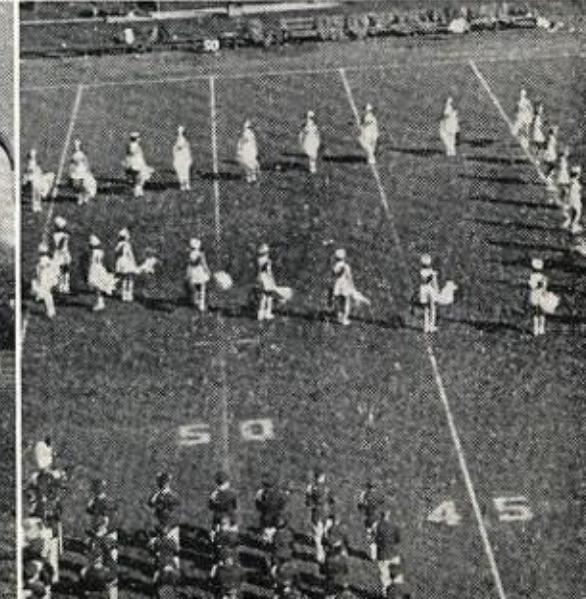

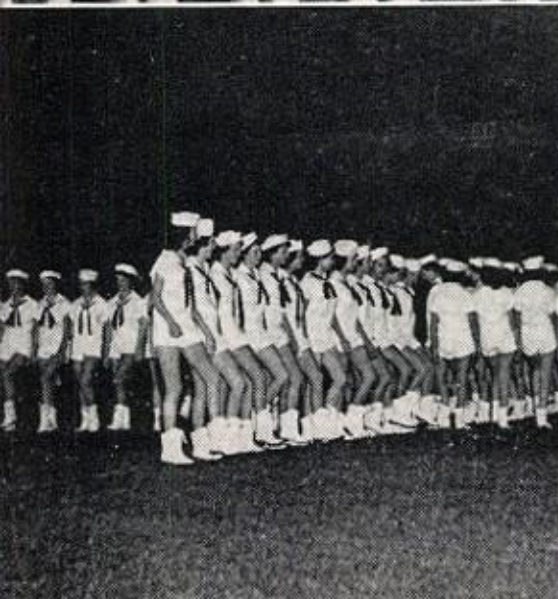

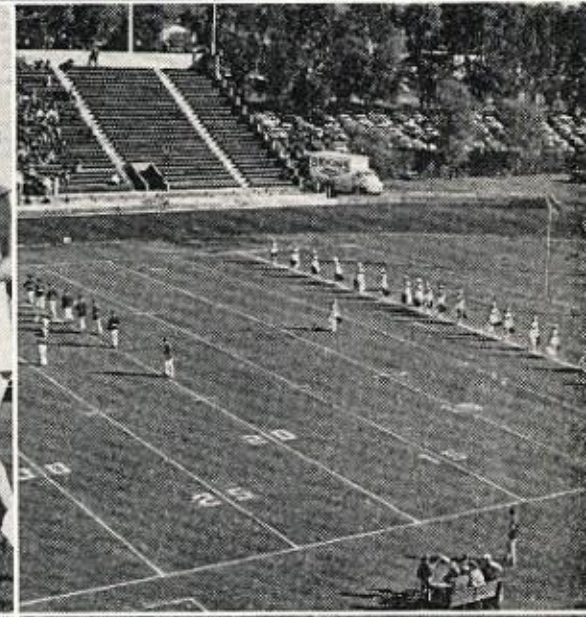

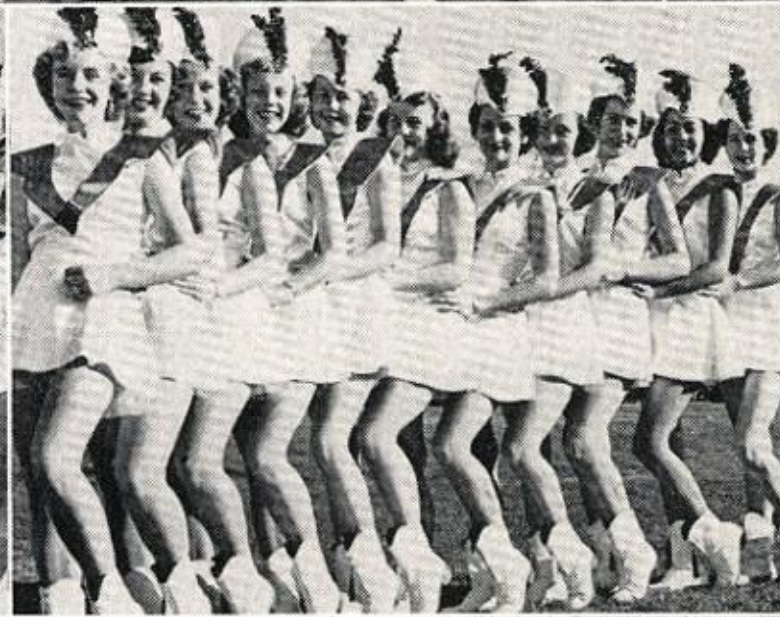

What games are these?

In the spring a young girl's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of archery, baseball, and badminton, as the "joyful" expressions on these girls' faces clearly show.

The militia was never like this.

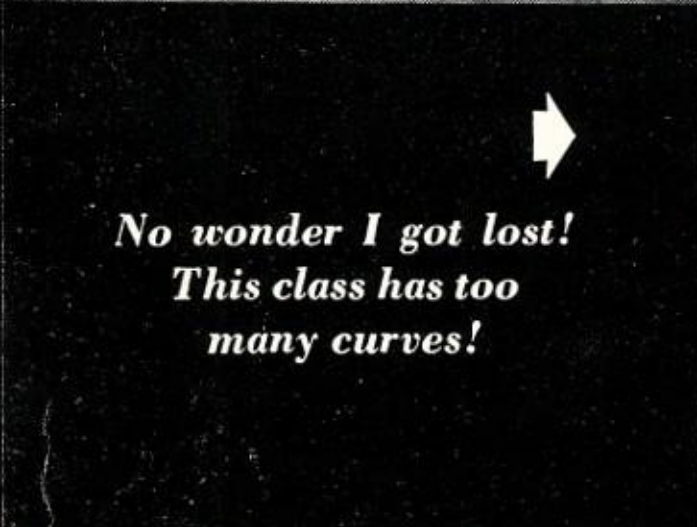

Half time was not complete without our drill team led by Barbara Evensen and Millie Radan. The cute stunts done by our girls were under the direction of Miss Weber and Miss Barsanti. The girls made the costumes which added to their charm.

Girls! Girls! Girls! Ahhhh!

The Review staff wishes to express its appreciation to those who made this annual a reality.

Special thanks go to Mr. Livoni, our own physics teacher, for his untiring patience and co-operation in supplying a large share of the pictures for the annual. We wonder at his enthusiastic smile and agreeability even after long, late hours in the dark room to help us meet deadlines.

We trust Mr. Martin of Kee Coleman Studios has been able to dream of something other than black gowns and white collars after taking some seven hundred senior portraits. We are glad his nerves have been able to take the strain of yearbook photography for the many years he has faithfully served the Review.

Our amiable and obliging engraver of Dome Engraving Company is new to us this year but soon proved to be "a friend in need and a friend indeed." The staff is grateful to him for the production problems he helped solve and for his valuable suggestions.

Mr. J. Donald Adam of News Publishing Company has again ably handled the printing of our book. The foregoing pages speak for our printer's work.

Last, but not least, we want to thank Mr. Silvius of Silvius & Schoenbackler Bookbinders for his important share in the book.
